

Green Milkweed

Asclepias Viridis

- Flowers are in a densely packed round cluster about 2 inches across arising from a leaf axil. Individual flowers are pale green. Sometimes there is a purplish tint to the flowers.
- Also attracts hummingbirds and hummingbird moths to the garden for nectar
- Prefers moist soil-tolerates dry

Height: 3 Feet

Zone: 3

Full Sun Partial Sun

Butterflies Hummingbirds Cut Flower/Foliage

Fragrant

Moist, Well-Drained

Water's Edge
Bog Plant

Green Milkweed is in used pots, please disregard any codes written on the pots.