

Azalea 'Fireball'

Azalea 'Fireball'

- ☼ Hardy selection which provides a massive display of bright orange-red flowers with a delicate fragrance. Leaves emerge bronze-red, maturing to mid green, and then develop incredible autumn colour. Excellent for massing in shrub borders and under evergreen trees
- ☼ Azaleas need acidic well drained soil. Adding peat moss and/or pine needles will ensure that they thrive in your garden
- ☼ Very cold hardy and unrivalled for early spring colour
