

Dwarf Hairy Beardtongue

Penstemon hirsutus var. pygmeus

- ☼ Low mound of leathery dark-green leaves with upright stems that bear tubular flowers. Blooms are white on the inside and lavender on the outside.
- ☼ Very showy early summer display perfect for the sunny rock garden. Drought tolerant once established
- ☼ Attracts butterflies and other pollinators to the garden. Deer & rabbit resistant
- ☼ Native to Ontario

Height: 6-8 Inches

Zone: 3

Full Sun

Cut Flower/Foliage

Butterflies

Deer

Dwarf Hairy Beardtongue is in recycled pots, please disregard any codes written on the pots,