

Toad Lily

Tricyrtis hirta

- ❁ Intriguing star-shaped flowers that are reminiscent of orchids. Splashed in deep, purple bringing late season colour to the shady garden.
- ❁ No shade garden should be without toad lilies. These Asian curiosities bloom with orchid-like flowers that demand a close look, when the garden is winding down in fall. They do best in light shade in humus-rich soil that retains moisture, and are suitable for less formal parts of the garden.
- ❁ Spreads, but is not aggressive
